

Adele Torok

July 14, 1923 - June 6, 2023

Adele Torok (nee Kaiser), 99, of Succasunna, passed away on Tuesday, June 6, 2023. Adele was born and raised in Schandern, Romania, resided in Germany for seven years before emigrating to the United States in 1952. She lived in Garfield for 46 years before settling in Succasunna 23 years ago. Adele loved to sew and worked as a seamstress for many years before retiring in 1986 to help raise her beloved grandchildren, Russell and Cameron. Adele was a devout Catholic who attended Mass weekly and enjoyed watching televised Mass daily. She was a parishioner of both St. Stephen's R.C. Church in Passaic as well as St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish in Flanders. Her passions in life included gardening, baking, dancing, sewing, knitting, and spending time with her family. She was very proud of her beautiful flower garden that was featured in the local paper. Adele was the beloved wife of the late Michael Torok, devoted mother of Rosemary Crofts and her husband, Timothy, adoring grandmother of Russell Crofts and his wife, Alison, and Cameron Crofts and his wife, Megan, loving great-grandmother of Everett, Shepherd, Leavy, Esme, and Cameron Jr., and dear sister of the late Elisabeth Kupetz, Mary Geng, and Anna Fuchs. Adele will also be missed by several nieces, nephews, great-nieces, and great-nephews as well as her dedicated aide, Stella Irizarry.
