

Anna Maria Andrzejewski

March 24, 1950 - December 27, 2023

Anna Maria Andrzejewski, 73, of Wayne, passed away on Wednesday, December 27, 2023. Anna was born in Passaic and raised in Garfield. In the late 70s she lived on a farm in Augusta, NJ for 7 years. There they raised horses and other animals. Later on, she moved to Stillwater Township in 1988 for 12 years, during that time she bred Rottweilers and enjoyed spending time at the Jersey Shore. She then lived in Lake Hopatcong for 18 years until finally settling in Wayne 5 years ago. Anna earned her Bachelor's Degree from Dover Business School with a concentration in fashion, then a Master's Degree from William Paterson University in sociology. She worked as a fashion buyer for Sterns before ultimately becoming Director of the Willow Glen Center in Andover Township for many years. Anna enjoyed working with people and helping disabled children in her job as Director at Willow Glenn. She was a tough, but loving mother and as a single parent she worked hard to make sure they were always comfortable. She was someone who charted her own path in life and was always in search of learning something new. Anna was a parishioner of St. Stanislaus Kostka R.C. Church in Garfield, and her passions in life included gardening, traveling, sailing, white water rafting and eating good food. Anna was the beloved daughter of the late Jozef and Wladyslawa Andrzejewski (nee Biekisz), loving mother of Brett Casper, dear sister of Leokadia Biczak and her husband, Joseph, aunt of Jessica Biczak, Joseph Biczak and Julia Arellano, and great aunt of Lucille, Olive, Ben, and Rocco.
