“ I knew Anna as a young child since we lived next door to her and her family. I was very drawn to her because of her kindness and sincerity in everything she did.
Needless to say, I was at the Wlazlo house many times.
I left for the Convent at 13 and I remember her coming to our home and asking me to be the godmother to her last child. I could not because at the time it was impossible. Our link was so close that she named her after me...Maryann.
Things became complicated, time went by and we went on doing what we did.
I will always remember her again for her goodness and kindness and regret that time took us apart.
I will have a mass said for her and the Sisters will remember her in their prayers.
