

Arlene J. Gemski

July 17, 1938 - October 13, 2021

Arlene J. Gemski (nee Brostowski), of Ringoes, passed away on October 13, 2021. On July 17, 1938, Albert and Stasia (Sudol) Brostowski welcomed Arlene into this world. Arlene was born in Passaic and spent her childhood and teen years growing up in Wallington. She was the product of the Wallington Public School System. When Arlene was a senior in High School she met the man she would marry. On June 3, 1961, Arlene became Mrs. Robert Gemski. They were married for 45 years and were blessed with one son, Jay. The family then moved from Wallington to East Rutherford, to Ewing and then finally settling in Ringoes. Arlene was a stay-at-home mom, doing all the things that moms do. All too soon she found herself an empty nester. Arlene then took a job with Kelly Girl as a temp. She worked in many of the corporations in her area, retiring in 2000. With retirement comes some aging, aches, pains and a variety of health issues. Arlene's life became more sedentary. She was an avid reader of books, magazines and the newspaper. Arlene enjoyed watching TV, especially the old reruns. She is now at rest and in peace. Arlene was the dear sister of Barbara Kacsanik and her husband, Joseph and Allen Brostowski and his wife, Nancy, loving aunt of Christopher Kacsanik, Matthew Brostowski and goddaughter and niece Linda Leach and her husband, Brandon. Arlene is predeceased by her parents, Albert and Stasia Brostowski, her husband, Robert Gemski and son, Jay Gemski.
