“ It has taken me some time to respond to the loss of Bonnie. I was shocked to hear of her passing. It was difficult to believe it to be true.

As a software provider, I had the real pleasure of working with her since 1996, more than 25 years. Given the relevance of our software to her work, our relationship was continuing, demanding, but always fulfilling.

Bonnie was a special person. She was dedicated to getting the results she needed and she was tenacious. However, she was always reasonable, open and fair. She approached difficult situations professionally and with understanding. As a result, I think she always achieved a result that was way above what others would have settled for.

I had the pleasure of sharing laughs and life moments with her. She obviously loved her family, loved the times they shared, and was a real giving person.

It is hard to believe that she is gone, that she will not be there to enjoy the special moments that come in peoples lives.

It was a privilege and a real gift to have been working with her and have her in my life for so many days and years.

I wish her family and friends comfort and peace in her memory. May it always be a blessing to you.

“ I will miss seeing Bonnie at family events. It was always so much fun to catch up and have a few laughs at the family reunion. It never mattered how much time had passed, we would just pick up where we left off and have a great time. With love, Janette Bogdan

“ As a colleague of Bonnie, I admired her personal strength, her optimist in every situation, her search for the better and her generosity. She was a Mentor for many in the Finance Team. She will continue to inspire us.

“ I grew up with Mrs. Jedrzejczaks sons Billy and Steve. A bunch of us spent a lot of time at her house, sometimes late at night and being the selfish inconsiderate kid I was probably making a lot of noise. But no matter what she always greeted you with warmth and a smile, she really was a kind soul. Even though I haven't seen Mrs. Jedrzejczak in probably 20 years I always thought about her from time to time and was greatly saddened to hear the news of her passing. May she rest in peace in heaven with her loved ones she has lost over the years. My Condolences to her family for there loss, Gone way to soon. RIP
