“ Imet Clareen as a pen-pal in '70. We wrote about our lives. She went through my meeting my husband, the birth of my children, my divorce, my terrible medical times and I felt like a sister to her. I know how hard she struggled. I know how much she loved her husband Joe and how much she enjoyed their trips together. I still can't beleive she is gone. She is out of pain and in Peace now. I am glad to know whe's up there in Heaven looking down on me and I am sure she'll put in a good word that I soon walk once again.I will always think of her at Christmas, she was my son's Elf. Such a beautiful person and great friend. Laura Rankins Pogue.

“ I just can't believe she is gone! I have known her for years. She was such a beautiful person. When my sons were small every Christmas she would send them a brass Christmas ornament with their names engraved on it and I'd tell them it was from thier "Elf". She so loved her trips to Disney world with her husband Joe! My heart goes out to him and all of her family.
