“ My deepest condolences on the loss of Ciocia Czesie. I have many fond memories growing up that always included Ciocia Cziecie. As a child, I always remember being greeted and squeezed with a big, tight hug that possessed all her love. I also remember being excited driving to her house to see her gorgeous rose garden. There are so many beautiful and personal memories we all share but we all can agree that her love for family was infinite. May God Bless her soul as she enters the Kingdom of Heaven.

*With sincerest regrets,
Michelle Lupacz*
