

Dennis Frank Biernat, Sr.

April 7, 1952 - December 9, 2024

Dennis Biernat Sr., 72, of Newfoundland, PA, passed away unexpectedly at home on December 9, 2024. Born on April 7, 1952, Dennis was a proud Teamster who spent his career driving for Shop Rite, earning the respect and friendship of many along the way.

Dennis was preceded in death by his parents, Mary and Kasimer Biernat, and his brother, Edward Biernat. He is survived by his two sons, Dennis Biernat Jr. of Parsippany, NJ, and Michael Biernat of Rockaway, NJ; his sister, Eileen and her husband, Ladislaus, of Sparta, NJ; as well as numerous nephews, nieces, grand-nephews, and grand-nieces who will deeply miss his presence.

Known affectionately as "Uncle Dennis" or "UD," he had a passion for heavy machinery and took great joy in tinkering with his equipment in his yard. His love for problem-solving and his ability to bring ideas to life through his hands will be remembered by all who knew him.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that donations be made in Dennis's memory to Children's Hospital of Philadelphia (<https://give2.chop.edu/>)

May his soul rest in eternal peace.

“ Omg! Denny Bear! We have been friends forever 💕 I had no idea! No one reached out even with my contact information on your refrigerator. I'm am heartbroken 💔 I loved you so much. I'm so glad I got to see you before you passed! You told me your son was bringing you a bed the next day! I have called and left messages. No one called me back, now I know why. I will always love you, you were my best friend, my brother. I will miss you so much!!! You will always be in my heart! I am devastated to see this. 😞😞😞 So, so many memories.! Thank you for the last dance in your house. You meant the world to me. I will never forget our last talk. 💕💕💕
