“ i knew Dolores from 1983, i was so happy to spend time with her, one of the nicest person i had ever known. i met Dolores as i worked with her son Bud Lou, state of nj govt, i am still great friends with Lou. i am close to Lou Ann and there great Dad Lou. i had so many laughs with Dolores,i have loved all the time with her, great person. i laughed at stories i would tell Dolores she should take a trip to Japan and many countries, as i knew she was so nervous about flying. all good laughs and i would bring my lhasa aspos dog and she loved her. i ate very good dinners/lunches. i do not know if i am writing properly. i will end by me knowing Dolores for so long was a gift, funny, so warm.i will miss our visits, but i love her and i believe GOD will take care of her as our faith in Jesus Christ.i pray for all in family to have peace, knowing where mom and wife will be in GODS KINGDOM. love always Eugene and Darlene Delaney.
