August 16, 1938 - March 31, 2022

Doris Tanderis (nee Holden) of Wallington passed away on Thursday, March 31, 2022 at the age of 83.

Doris was born in Coaldale, PA, on August 16, 1938 to William and Olga (Bortnick) Holden. Her family moved to Garfield, NJ where she attended school. She graduated from Garfield High School in 1956. Doris later moved to Wallington where she resided for the past 54 years.

Doris was married to her beloved husband, the late Edward Tanderis, on September 22, 1962. They were married for nearly 47 years at the time of his passing in 2009.

Doris worked as an administrative assistant at Porcelanosa until retiring in 2002. She greatly enjoyed crocheting and crafting, but her most treasured role was that of being a grandmother. She cherished nothing more than spending time with her grandchildren. Doris was a constant presence and the biggest fan at their school, dance, and sporting events. Doris was also an active and dedicated member of the Saddle Brook Senior Citizens Club and the Saddle Brook Happy Stitchers.

Doris is survived by her children and grandchildren. She was the devoted, caring mother of Doreen Dowiak and her husband, Peter and Edward J.

Tanderis and his wife, Cecylia. She was the proud grandmother of Emily, Paul, Hailey, and Edward Jr. She is also survived by a sister, Peggy Kovalycsik (Nicholas) and a brother, William Holden (Linda), in addition to nieces and nephews.

There are no words to describe how much she will be missed by all who loved her.

In lieu of flowers, donations to a charity of your choice in Doris' name would be kindly appreciated by her family.

“ I will always remember the kindness Doris showed my daughter during the many soccer games she attended. We will cherish with the beautiful hats she crocheted for us.
