“ Aunt Bunny,

I will always treasure In my heart the beautiful memories shared with you. You were such a caring, loving aunt to me, John, Johnny, Lauren and your great-great niece Lilliana. You never forgot us on our Birthdays. Your card was always the first to arrive. One of my special memory was on your 70th Birthday. We played bingo and celebrated your Birthday. You were so happy, laughing, and had a smile on your face all night. You will be forever in my heart. May you Rest in peace. You will be missed by all of us.....

Love you always.....your niece ,

Susie. ❤️

“ My dearest big hearted Auntie Bunny,

When I was a kid, I didn't believe them when your sisters told me that your name was really Dorothy Beverly, I always only knew you as "Bunny", your lifetime nickname.

I will always remember you laughing and smiling because you enjoyed my jokes, my animal immitations, and my general silliness when we got together.

May you find comfort in heaven, a place that you held so dear to your heart in your prayers.

With love from your Niece Jo-Ann

“ R.I.P. Aunt Bunny . . . while I look back to my teen age years, I remember Aunt Bunny calling me to play card games. She would come over and play cards with me for hours and we had so much fun passing the quarter back and forth.

Before I started driving, Russ and Bunny took me to the Jersey shore several times and I have fond memories of those trips to the beach.

I also had the pleasure of living downstairs from them both for a few years when Sean and I got married and she always was concerned if I was sick wanting to get me soup, medicine etc. Also, you always worried about helping my Mom Therese when she needed anything . . . you were there.

For any occasion, your cards were always one of the first to arrive, never forgot us.

Miss you already Aunt Bunny . . . you are such a caring and loving Aunt & Sister and will live in all our hearts forever. R.I.P. Love you . .
