

Edward Michael Dolack

February 12, 1959 - December 19, 2022

Edward Michael Dolack, 63, of Garfield, passed away on Monday, December 19, 2022. Edward was born in Passaic, raised in Garfield, and lived in Elmwood Park for 25 years before settling back in Garfield in 2019. Edward graduated from Garfield High School in 1977 and completed his Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice at Bergen Community College in 1979, entering the Mahwah Police Academy upon graduation. Edward was a respected police officer for the Garfield Police Department for 26 years, and served as a Sergeant before retiring in 2006. He then became a security officer in the Garfield school and court systems. He was dedicated to protecting the city of Garfield and helped many civilians. Edward was an altar boy as a child and raised his three daughters in the Catholic faith at St. Stanislaus Kostka R.C. Church in Garfield. Edward was a passionate member in the Garfield PBA Local #46 and he enjoyed spending time with his three daughters, sisters, and other family members and friends. He enjoyed vacationing, especially in Mount Pocono, PA. He was a dog lover that also loved watching sports, a good cigar, and a glass of wine. He was humored by many and an unforgettable soul. Edward was the beloved son of the late Edward R. and Florence Catherine Dolack (nee Yurchik), devoted father of Nicole Lee, Brielle Edie, Victoria Rose Dolack, loving brother of Joy Gumann and her husband, Ron, and Susan Polmann, godfather of Alexa, and uncle of Kyle and Tim.

“ Your eulogy at his wake was beautiful. Very heart felt and I know he was listening and proud of all three of you. I will miss your father. He was a good man to me and it's obvious that he raised good children
