“ I am so sorry I cannot attend. I have severe arthritis and it's very difficult for me to navigate stairs, but I am with you in spirit. Your Dad was great! He was always thoughtful, and gave me some of his macramé pieces. And he was always smiling. My family admired him so. I know he is now happy to be back with your Mom, and probably having a great time with my Mom, Rose, and Betty. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you, and I'm sure he will still be watching over you. He will be missed. Love, Bob and Sandy (Rembish) Gazdus.
