

Else Verleur

September 15, 1933 - October 24, 2020

Else (Knapp) Verleur, 87, of Garfield, passed away on Saturday, October 24, 2020. Else was born and raised in Dormagen, Germany, and immigrated to the United States in 1958, living in New York City for four years before settling in Garfield. She worked at Behr of America in Mahwah for 25 years, retiring in 1997. Else was a long-time parishioner of Our Lady of Sorrows R.C. Church in Garfield and later, St. Leo's R.C Church in Elmwood Park. Her passions in life included gardening, traveling and reading. She was also known for telling many interesting stories. Else was the beloved wife of the late William Verleur, devoted mother of Ronald Verleur and his wife, Mary Anne, of Newton, and the late Ralph Verleur, treasured grandmother of Clarissa and Christina, loving sister of Ludwig Knapp of Greene, NY and his late wife Doris, and dear aunt of Jeffrey Knapp and his wife, Deb, and Karen Cammarata and her husband, John. Her extended family, which she spent many happy occasions with, included Domenic A. Buzzerio and his wife Clare, and Domenic P. Buzzerio and his wife Catherine and their daughters, Camille and Gabrielle.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Else's name to St. Leo's Parish Food Pantry (324 Market Street Elmwood Park, NJ 07407) would be kindly appreciated by her family.

“ Else, My sincere condolences to your family from your longest friend in the United States. We first met on the train on the way to the ship "Maasdam" to America so many years ago. I terribly miss our regular phone calls. Love, Anneliese
