“ One of my favorite childhood memories was taking the bus (or being picked up by Auntie Anne in her station wagon) to Uncle Emil and Auntie Anne's house. It was automatically exciting because they had so many kids to play with!! (My beloved cousins). Auntie Anne would be in the kitchen of course, cooking ,while asking her sister (my mother) what trouble she had recently been in or who's butt she would be kicking on behalf of her children. My mom would reply "just give me one of Emil's beers ok Anne". And in the living roomwas my Uncle Emilon his "throne". Although, we knew he was happy to see me , Audrey and Leo, we had difficulty understanding him through his mumbling.we did understand however, when a touchdown was made or not made!! Anyway, I always felt at home.

Thank you for being so good to my family. I am happy you will once again be with the love of your life. I love and miss you my Auntie Anne. Love and God Bless you "UNC"
