“ Our dear friend, life was not fair to you. Never met a more hardworking woman who never forgot where she came from. Helping many accomplish and enrich themselves while leaving yourself behind. Wishing you had received the help you so desperately needed. Although not a believer you asked to take you to church one day. Never thought you would leave us so soon and so we never made it.

You always ended our phone conversations with “I love you guys” and when we asked you to be careful you always answered “ you know me, I’m Mrs. Careful”.

To Misha and Teddy, you were first above all in her heart and wanted the best for you.

Rest in peace my friend and may God be with you. We will miss you.

“ How do you say final good bye to a person who you used to like very much because that person had shared the same thoughts about the family life , about kids, about immigrants' life , about "freedom" of American women , about connections with relatives and school friends in native Bulgaria? Other words with a person who touched your soul in some way!

You never really say your final good-bye! You imagine that person next to you invisible, when you need her/his support! And that is ok. You are trying to guess what that person would say in that situation. And that's ok. Then you turn to your heart and you do what your heart desires. And that's ok.

The life is so short in any country in the world and that's why we have to celebrate it in each given moment!

Rest in peace, dear Jenichka! 🙏

“ Dear George, Misha and Tedi, our deepest condolences to you!🕊️ Jenya will always be remembered by us as warm and lovely person who always thought about her Mom and brother in Bulgaria. In addition , she carried in herself the love to Bulgaria as being born and raised in Bulgaria. The first place, she loved you ,Misha and Tedi!!!👍❤️🕊️We know her since we first came in the USA around 1998 while she was working in Pizza Marina and when later on she became one of the owners. We used to have great Bulgarian parties almost each month hosted by her and other coowners. Jenya was full of energy, hard working, socialable and charming yang lady. We appreciated all of the above, as there were no facebook, instagram and so on those years. So in order to establish connections in any way we attended those free Bulgarian parties!!!We are so grateful for all of this!!!Let her rest in peace! We, the old Bulgarian generation in NJ remember Jenia and
