

Florence C. Dolack

April 9, 1929 - July 7, 2018

Florence C. Dolack (nee Yurchik), 89, life-long resident Garfield, passed away surrounded by her loving family on Saturday, July 7, 2018. Florence was a parishioner of St. Stanislaus Kostka R.C Church in Garfield. She was a proud Office Manager at Stull Engraving in Garfield for 22 years retiring in 1992. She enjoyed reading novels, and was an expert at solving puzzles, crosswords and word searches until the very end. She was an animal lover and enjoyed Jeopardy, Wheel of Fortune and, of course, the New York Yankees. She was the beloved wife of the late Edward R. Dolack, devoted mother of Edward M. "Skip" Dolack and his wife, Lisa, of Elmwood Park, Joy Gumann, and her husband, Ron, of Clifton, and Susan Polmann and her significant other, Gus Maris, of Horsham, PA, loving grandmother of Timothy Gumann, Nicole, Brielle, and Victoria Dolack, and Kyle and Alexa Polmann. She was the dear sister of the late Edward Yurchik and is also survived by her beloved and devoted friend, Joe Botta.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Florence's name to the Bergen County SPCA, South Hackensack, would be greatly appreciated. <http://bergen.sPCA.org/>

“ Some people come into our lives, leave footprints on our hearts and we are never the same that is how Flo touched my life I have known Flo for over thirty years as I am best friends with her daughter Joy; i love hearing stories about mom she was so hip and spunky and a wonderful person to know. I fondly remember Flo and my mom becoming friends at the Maywood Pool. They really enjoyed each others company. I would love seeing Flo, she was always so kind and happy. I will miss her greatly. Those we love and lose are always connected by heartstrings into infinity.
