

George Stefanco

July 22, 1934 - March 28, 2017

George Stefanco, 82, of Liverpool, N.Y., passed away Tuesday, March 28th, 2017, surrounded by his loving family. George was born July 22, 1934, along with his twin brother Edward, to George and Susan (nee Gunza) Stefanco, of Garfield. He attended the Newark College of Engineering, and the Union Business College. After a long and successful career as a National Sales Manager for Smith Bearing, a division of Textron Corporation, he retired in 1991. He then relocated to Pocono Lake, PA., for 10 years, where he was a volunteer at American Legion Post 413. In 2001 he moved to North Fort Meyers, FL., volunteering at American Legion Post 336, and the Cape Coral Police Association "Cop Shop". In 2015 he moved to Liverpool, N.Y., to be close to his family. George was the devoted father of Stephen Stefanco, and his wife MaryEllen, of Saddle Brook, Scott Stefanco, and his wife Frances, of Liverpool, N.Y., and George Alan Stefanco of Passaic Park, N.J., loving grandfather of Nicole Covell, and her husband Jesse, of Liverpool, N.Y., Kelly Scholl, and her husband Matt, of Albany, N.Y., Shaun Keay, and his wife Elaine, of Midland Park, N.J., and Tara Keay of Saddle Brook, N.J., and the late Gregory Alan Stefanco, and great-grandchildren Judah and Xavier Covell, and Lana Keay, dear brother of the late Edward Stefanco. As per George's request, his cremation and private burial will be at the family plot in George Washington Memorial Park in Paramus.

Tribute Wall

“ George Stefanco

---

September 27, 2023 at 07:17 AM