

Glen Bruno Sudol

December 14, 1950 - February 10, 2026

Glen Bruno Sudol, 75, of Passaic, New Jersey, passed away peacefully on February 10, 2026. Born on December 14, 1950, in Passaic, Glen was a lifelong resident of the city he proudly called home.

Glen was the beloved son of the late Bruno Sudol and Sophie (Dobrowolski) Sudol. He was also predeceased by his brother, Donn Bruno Sudol. Glen's roots in Passaic ran deep, and he cherished the friendships and connections he built throughout his life in the community.

A graduate of Passaic High School, Glen continued his education at Fairleigh Dickinson University. He went on to dedicate 35 years of faithful service as a Mail Handler with the United States Postal Service, retiring in 2016. Known for his strong work ethic and reliability, Glen took pride in his career and the role he played in serving his community.

Glen was a devoted parishioner of Holy Rosary Church in Passaic, where his faith was an important and steady presence in his life.

Outside of work, Glen embraced life with enthusiasm. He was an avid golfer who treasured time spent on the course. A passionate sports enthusiast, he was a devoted St. Louis Cardinals fan and enjoyed collecting sports memorabilia, a hobby that reflected both his love of the game and his appreciation for its history. Glen's knowledge of sports and his spirited conversations about teams and players brought joy to those around him.

He is survived by his cousin, Joanne Presciepa, and her husband, Leon Presciepa, as well as his great cousin, Len Presciepa. He will also be remembered fondly by extended family members, friends, and all who had the pleasure of knowing him.

Glen will be remembered for his loyalty, quiet strength, and enduring love for his family, faith, and hometown. His memory will live on in the hearts of those who knew and loved him.

“ We are so sad to hear of Glen’s passing. Before selling our Passaic home, we spent many, many weekends in the neighborhood. Glen always greeted us with a smile and a story, He would let us know when better parking spots became available (if you know, you know 😊) and he would watch over our home while we were away. He was a lovely neighbor. In recent years, we kept in touch with holiday notes. His messages were always filled with warmth and humor. We wish Glen’s family and friends peace and comfort as joyful memories are shared. We will always remember Glen as such a good guy. Steve and Liz Kudla, Forest Hill, MD

“ I’m very sad to learn of Glen’s passing. He was my neighbor, friend and Holy Rosary School classmate. After leaving Passaic to join the Navy, I’d see him in our old Ninth St. neighborhood whenever I returned to visit family. Glen was a kind, gentle person. Growing up, we shared musical interests in the early days of Motown and the British Invasion. I’ll miss you, Glen! Jim Kudla, Orlean, Virginia
