“ Dear Madison & Dave, Mr. and Mrs. Bednarz, Irene, Jola and all the many family members and friends hurting from Grace's untimely passing.

We are so very sorry for your immense loss. Anyone who shared any time with Grace was touched by her kindness and love for people. It took only a few minutes in Grace's presence to understand her unwavering character, generosity and quality of the person she was. What you immediately felt from the moment you met her was a consistent authenticity and sincere caring that left you certain of exactly who she was and where she stood.

Anyone who has experienced the painful loss of a loved one, particularly the loss of such a high-quality person that happens too suddenly and too soon, has struggled to make sense of the reason and timing. In these times, we must eventually all come to realize that our loved ones who pass are defined by the love and example they leave behind, not by the timing or circumstances of their leaving.

Madison in particular, because of her young age, will miss sharing so much with her devoted mother. But Grace's love, example and strength will guide her forever through the many challenges her loss creates. Dave, Irene, Yola and everyone else in the family will do everything that they know Grace would expect in filling the void for Madison...it's certainly what Grace would have done with her typical dedicated selflessness for any family and friends.

She has left too soon, but her spirit and example will endure in all our hearts and memories.

Rest in peace, you beautiful soul.

Our deepest condolences and love,

John, Samar, Nick and Natasha Najdovski
