

Harry Brent Vivian

May 7, 1947 - July 27, 2022

On Wednesday, July 27th, Harry Brent Vivian passed away at the age of 75, with his wife and two daughters by his side, his enormous but exhausted heart finally at rest. A letter carrier in Rutherford for 40 years, Harry loved joking around, crusty Italian bread, coffee with two creams and two sugars, the Yankees, and his family. He was a devoted son to Barbara McManus Vivian and the late Harry E. Vivian of Greene, ME, adoring husband of 49 years to Irene Mullady Vivian of Rutherford, doting daddy to Siobhan Vivian Caruso of Los Angeles and Brenna Vivian Rose of Wallington, caring father-in-law to Nick Caruso and Mike Rose, and beloved grampy to Vivian and Marie Caruso and Tommy and Sonny Rose. He will be missed deeply and loved forever.

“ Sending our deepest sympathy with heartfelt sorrow at the loss of a special friend and ex co worker. Remembering hearing stories about shenanigans he and my brother Paul shared and enjoying Brent and Irene’s company at credit union dinners. We had always planned on meeting at the Maywood seafood market for dinner but the pandemic changed that. Sorry it never happens. Brent expressed that he loved homemade peanut butter cookies and that they were his favorite. So many memories dear to my heart. God bless you and RIP my friend. 🙏 Doug and Marion Lowry
