

Henry Victor Michalski

July 3, 1924 - January 16, 2019

Henry V. Michalski, 94, of Englewood Cliffs, NJ, passed away on Wednesday, January 16, 2019. Henry was born and raised in Warsaw, Poland and immigrated to the United States in 1965. He lived in Chicago, IL, for 13 years, settling in Englewood Cliffs in 1978.

Henry's life revolved around the entertainment business. Early in his career, he was involved on the performing side, and transitioned to management later on. He was an Impresario, and President of American Arts Cinema & Entertainment Enterprises in Englewood Cliffs, NJ, retiring in 2005 after 64 years of devoted and distinguished work bringing variety shows and theatrical performances with the most famous artists from Poland, and many Polish films to the Polish communities of the Midwestern and Northeastern United States and Canada.

He enjoyed reading many different books, listening to music recorded by his beloved artist friends, and watching old western films in his free time. He was one of the shareholders in the Polish Daily News "Nowy Dziennik" in New York City.

Henry was the beloved husband of Barbara (nee Zelczak) Michalski, of Englewood Cliffs, devoted father of Teresa Michalski, of Englewood Cliffs, and Dorothy Michalski-Marchlewski and her husband, Janusz, and beloved grandfather of Victoria Marchlewski of Paramus, NJ, loving brother of Aniela Kwiatkowska, of Warsaw, Poland, and dear uncle of Grazyna Rachanska, of Tinley Park, IL.
