“ *I called her Aunt Jean. That was 1975-80 ish I remember sleeping with my feet in Jennifer's face and hers in mine.
And when we would argue Aunt Jean would come in the room and yell at us and I got so scared. But when she closed the door and went back laughing with my parents I knew she wasn't mean. My childhood was fun because of Aunt Jean and Uncle Eddy. Although our families drifted apart I will always have a special place in my heart for her and the Gola's. Prayers from The Wrobel's.*

“ We shall cherish all of our times together, first with Eddie and Jeanne, then with Jeanne. Trips to Miami, Las Vegas, San Francisco, the shore and Indiana. We will miss her every day and now I have no one to call at 5 pm, which was 8 by her and almost her bedtime. May she Rest In Peace and know how much she was loved. Lucy & Hans

“ Thinking of all the Corrigan sisters and their families during this difficult time. Remembering our childhood. Cousins are your very first friends. I cherish our Jersey shore vacations and our days up at Requa Lake and roller skating on Wadsworth Street with my cousins. RIP dear Jeanne.
