

Joan Marie Lewandowski

May 28, 1930 - April 15, 2022

Joan Marie Lewandowski (nee Konikowski), formerly of Jacksonville, FL, passed away peacefully with family by her side. Joan married the late Ted Lewandowski in 1956, and lived in Hillsdale, NJ for a number of years before moving to Winchester, VA where they raised their three children. Joan is survived by her children, Leslie (Jeff Goodwin), Lisa (Charlie) Straface of LaGrange, IL, and Marc Lewandowski of Lincoln, MA. Joan is the grandmother to Chas (Rachel), Matthew, and Michael Straface, and great-grandmother to Eva Marie Straface.

Joan is survived by her sister, Mary Ann (Edward) Champagne, and brothers Edward Konikowski (Lois) and Thomas Konikowski.

Joan lived a life full of kindness, love, and adventure. Even in her last days, her sense of humor and resilient spirit were ever-present.

Friends and family wishing to honor Joan are invited to make a donation in her name to one of the following charities:

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. Matt only shared with me beautiful memories of his grandmother and I know she will be deeply missed by you all.

I only had the chance to meet Joan at our Holy Cross graduation in 2014, but her positive energy brought so much joy to that day—she was so proud of Matt and his accomplishments.

Sending you all my deepest condolences during this time.
