

Joann VanHowling

January 9, 1960 - December 22, 2024

Joann VanHowling (nee Nieradka), of Hewitt, passed away peacefully on December 22, 2024. She was the daughter of Emil and Ann Nieradka (nee Pollack). Joann graduated from Montclair State University with B.S. in Business Administration. She worked for many years at Lord & Taylor in Paramus. She was an avid reader and loved gardening, lighthouses, and the songs, "It's a Beautiful Day", by U2 and "Mama" by The Spice Girls. Most of all she loved her children, Thomas and Katie. She was the best mother. She is also survived by her friend Dave and many, many cousins. A private cremation and celebration of life to be planned.
