

John S. Betley, Jr.

November 8, 1968 - June 25, 2022

John S. Betley Jr., 53, a lifelong resident of Garfield, passed away on Saturday, June 25, 2022. John went to Garfield School #4 K-8, graduated from Bergen County Vocational High School, then completed a 4 year State Certified Journey Electrician Program and had a partnership sponsorship with IBEW local 102. John worked with his father, John. S. Betley Sr., at John Betley Electrical Contracting, LLC., as a Foreman and Journeyman for over 36 years. He was extremely talented and always helpful to others. As a leader, he did extremely well with coordination and production. He was always open to suggestions. He loved playing competitive video games online and upgrading his computer system. John was the beloved son of John S. Betley Sr. and Linda Betley (nee Delorme), and loving brother of Charlene Vasilik and her husband, Ronald, and Brian Betley and his wife, Caren. John will be missed by many loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and a great-niece.

In lieu of flowers, donations in John's name to The American Cancer Society (<https://www.cancer.org/involved/donate.html>) would be kindly appreciated by his family.
