“ Our grandchildren have lost the most loving of grandfathers. John filled every moment of their young lives with his warm-heartedness, generous spirit, and the happiness he believed children should experience. He led them in the Orthodox faith by his example of piety and faithfulness. Grant eternal repose and blessed sleep, O Lord, to your departed servant John. May he rest in a place where all pain, sorrow, and sighing have fled away and where the Light of Your countenance shines. Memory eternal! Father John and Matushka Clara Mancantelli
