“ Josephine (as we knew her) was an amazing friend and in the end caregiver to my mother, Monique. She helped my father tremendously when my mother's dementia was too much and my dad needed a helping hand. She was always so kind and caring. Rest in peace and I hope you and my mom are up there in heaven enjoying a nice glass of wine and catching up with each other. Thank you for loving my mom and dad so much. Sincerely and with my deepest condolences. Jill Behr (nee Rittenhouse)
