

Krystyna Stanisława Kagan-Horn

April 11, 1939 - May 21, 2026

Krystyna Kagan-Horn passed away on May 21st, 2026 at the age of 87.

Krystyna was born in 1939 in Radomysl Wielki, Poland to the late Stanislaw Waclawski and the late Stanisława (Ganczarska) Waclawska, where Krystyna dedicated her life to her family and faith.

Krystyna lived in NJ for over 30 years, where she joined her family in becoming a dedicated parishioner at St. Vincent Martyr Catholic Church in Madison.

Krystyna loved to spend time with her family, always traveling with them, and talking with her friends on the phone. She loved to sing, and her singing would fill her home. Krystyna enjoyed activities that engaged her mind, such as reading books, doing puzzles, and watching trivia shows. She loved animals, particularly dogs, and all her pets throughout her life loved to be around her.

Krystyna is survived by her daughters, Aleksandra Siorek and Aneta Mascaro and her husband, Tom; her grandchildren, Marzena and her husband, Grzegorz, Oskar, and Philip; and her adored great-grandchildren, Emily and Amanda. She is also survived by her sisters, Maria and Barbara and sister-in-law Marta, and brother-in-law Wojciech.

Private cremation services will take place. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at St. Vincent Martyr Catholic Church, with entombment in Poland to follow at a later date.

Krystyna's impact on those who were blessed to know and love her can never truly be captured in words, and she will always be with them in their minds and in their hearts.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at St. Vincent Martyr Catholic Church on May 30, 2026 at 9:30 AM.

In lieu of flowers, please donate to your favorite charity.
