

Kurt D. Pikul

April 13, 1973 - April 29, 2014

Kurt D. Pikul, 41, of Toms River, on Tuesday, April 28, 2014. Born in Passaic, he lived in Garfield before moving to Toms River. He owned and operated KDP Capitol and World Business Funding in Tom River. He was a former parishioner of St. Stanislaus Kostka R.C., Church, Garfield. Kurt was the beloved son of Karen V. (nee Wagner) Pikul, of Toms River, and the late Stanley "Stash" Pikul, dear brother of David D. Pikul, and his wife Wendy, of Waldwick, Karla Maccarrone, of Toms River, and the late John Pikul, loving uncle of Stephen Pikul, Heather, Joey, CJ, and Michael Maccarrone, Lauren and Katie Pikul. Kurt is also survived by many loving Aunts, Uncles, Cousins, and Friends. This handsome man was a loving person with a beautiful smile. Everyone remembers him playing his drums. Kurt had a personality that you would never forget. He lit up a room like no other. Our hearts are truly broken
