“ Mom, through all of the ups and downs of your 95 years, you were the strongest women I ever met. All of your hard work and love for your family will never be duplicated. I will forever miss your love and guidance. Rest in Peace. Love Glen

“ I will never forget you letting us use everything and anything we wanted in your kitchen to make mush mush and then allow us bake it and to try to get grandpa to eat it. Thank god for the nonpareils because it almost made it look edible! You made the most amazing lasagna and cheesecake! Grandma, you are an amazing, strong woman. You are in a better place now and get to be with grandpa again! I love you!! -Morgan

“ Today I'm making mish mosh, using bingo stampers, playing Rummy 500, going to the dollar store to buy junk I don't need, eating frito lays jalapeno cheddar dip, and drinking yoo-hoo. These are a few of my fondest memories, but having you as my Grandma was by far my favorite one of all. I'll miss you every day. I love you.
