

Mary C. Soltis

December 10, 1918 - November 17, 2019

Mary C. (Wiatrak) Soltis, 100, a lifelong resident of Garfield, passed away on Sunday, November 17, 2019. Mary was born in Passaic and spent her entire life in Garfield. She worked as a Blueprint Stenographer for the Curtiss-Wright Corporation in Wood-Ridge for many years and at age 50 went to St. Mary's Nursing School to become a Nurse's Aide. She finished her career as a Dental Technician for Dr. William Dobrowolski in Passaic. Mary was a parishioner of St. Stanislaus Kostka R.C. Church in Garfield and her passion in life included tending to her precious garden. She grew all types of vegetables and found great joy in giving them away to her neighbors. She was an excellent baker, especially baking for the holidays. She was very active in the St. Stanislaus Kostka Rosary Society and the Felician College Older is Better Program. She loved her monthly Atlantic City trips and spending time at her son's home at the Jersey Shore. Her happiest moments were when she was invited to the Salai, Wittreich and Sirignano's parties to spend time with the nine children. Thank you, Barbara, for taking care of Mom in a special way. Mary was the beloved wife of the late Andrew Soltis; devoted mother of Robert J. Soltis and his wife, Celia, of Saddle Brook; dear sister of the late Michael, Edward, Emil, Marinus, Joseph, Frank, John, Stanley and Walter Wiatrak, Henrietta Gasior and Claire Indyk; and loving godmother of Joseph and Ronald Gasior, Eugene Indyk and Peter Wiatrak; and many loving nieces and nephews.
