“ Our friendship spanned nearly 50 years. It didn't matter where we were, close or far, our connection was always strong. MaryAnn was the friend I could always count on who would listen, who I could vent to and share our lives, warts and all, laughing or crying, across the miles or over a good meal. It really didn't matter as long as we were together in some way. Thank you for your friendship my dear friend. You are missed but you will be in my heart forever.
Many thanks also to her loving family who were so very supportive to her, especially Arlene who did so much for her and who MaryAnn adored.
My deepest condolences.
