

Nancy Spoto

May 14, 1966 - March 2, 2025

Nancy Spoto (nee Robinson), 58, a longtime resident of Garfield, passed unexpectedly on Sunday, March 2, 2025. Nancy was born in Cape Canaveral, FL, and moved to Lodi, NJ when she was 8, settling in Garfield, NJ, in 1997. Nancy worked as a secretary for various local school systems, retiring in 2013. Her children and family were her entire world. One of her favorite things was watching her children Francesca and Matthew play sports while they were growing up. She was an avid reader and loved to cook for her family. Her favorite place was the beach. Nancy was the devoted wife of Salvatore Spoto, beloved daughter of Edward Robinson and the late Maureen Robinson (nee Burke), and cherished mother of Francesca and Matthew Spoto

“ This is Eddie's grandmother. I am so sorry to hear of the passing of Nancy.

I have so many memories of watching Eddie and Matt playing sports together and talking to Nancy. And watching Matt & Eddie growing up together.

My thoughts and prayers go to you Sal, Matt & Francesca during this difficult time 🙏🙏🙏
