July 11, 1926 - November 28, 2014

Olga Osifchin Weisser, 88, of Garfield, died at home, Friday, November 28, 2014. Born in Cementon, PA, she lived in Passaic and Clifton before moving to Garfield over 70 years ago. Prior to her retirement in 1998, she worked in clerical services for LCS in Clifton for over 20 years. Previously she worked at Romans in Saddle Brook. She was a parishioner of St. Anne's R.C. Church in Fairlawn. Olga loved spending time with her family, sewing, cooking, and providing for her great-grandsons. One of her fondest memories was being blessed to have a family reunion in 2013 surrounded by her entire loving family. Olga was the beloved wife of the late Alfred Weisser, Jr., devoted mother of Patricia M. Weiser of Garfield, and Linda Szarawarski, and her husband Thomas, of Fairlawn, loving grandmother of Thomas Szarawarski Jr., and his wife Rebecca, Amy Lynn Doll, and her husband Zach, and great-grandsons James, Kaden, Carter, Kolby, and Landon, and dear sister of Nicholas Osifchin, and his wife Ruth, of Spring Lake, Edward Osifchin of Clifton, and Dorothy Crowley of Wayne. Olga is also survived by many loving nieces and nephews. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, P.O. Box 1000, Department 142, Memphis, TN, in memory of Olga Weisser, would be appreciated.
