

Patricia Mildred Fish

February 11, 1948 - February 7, 2024

Patricia Fish (nee Clark), 75, of Garfield, passed away peacefully surrounded by her loving family on Wednesday, February 7, 2024. Patricia was born in New York State and raised in Hillsdale, NJ. She resided in Vero Beach, FL, and Jonestown, TX for a brief time, spending most of her adult life in Hawthorne, NJ eventually settling in Garfield, NJ, in 2019. Patricia worked at seaboard industries in Hawthorne manufacturing PC boards. Afterwards she worked as a bus aide for Murphy Bus Company in Hawthorne for many years, retiring in 2010. While working at Murphy she also enjoyed working during the afternoon as a cafeteria aide handing out milk and ice cream to the kids. She was a former parishioner of Holy Trinity Episcopal Church in Hillsdale. Patricia's passions in life included arranging flowers, researching and sharing various flower pictures and recipes, shopping, and watching her favorite TV shows. She enjoyed going to the Stony Brook Swim Club in Hillsdale, having coffee, eating sweets, collecting dolls, bears and ceramics, telling stories, listening to music, dancing, especially with her cherished granddaughter, and decorating for the holidays. Patricia was married to Neil Fish Sr., a devoted mother to Neil Fish Jr., Jennifer Fish, and son-in-law, Brian Brown, and the loving grandmother of Melissa. Patricia enjoyed spending time with her close friends and many Facebook friends she met later in life. She will be delighted to be reunited with her mother, father, and grandmothers, amongst other relatives.

Patricia will be cremated privately at East Ridgelawn Crematory in Clifton, NJ.
