

Roza Kapolka

August 30, 1950 - March 27, 2025

Stefania Roza Kapolka (nee Lapacz), 74, of Garfield, passed on Thursday, March 27, 2025, with her beloved daughter, Agnieszka, and grandson, Daniel, by her side. Roza was born and raised in Jaciazek, Poland, emigrating to the United States with her husband, Franciszek, in 1995, settling in Garfield. Her last years were spent with her daughter in Airmont, NY. Roza worked as a home health aide for many years, most recently for Bayada Assistive Care in Clifton. She was a parishioner of St. Joseph's R.C. Church in Passaic. Roza was an extremely caring person with a heart of gold. She genuinely loved people, always helping those in need with a smile on her face. She would give her last penny if someone were in need. Roza was the beloved wife of the late Franciszek Kapolka, the devoted mother of Agnieszka Pyra and her fiance, Arkadiusz Jendryka, the caring grandmother of Daniel Pyra and his fiance, Beata Adamska, and Patryk Pyra and his wife, Adriana, the loving great-grandmother of Astrid Pyra, sister of Jadwiga Winnik and her late husband, Wacław, and Helena Lapacz, aunt of Zbigniew, Tadeusz, and Andrej, great-aunt of Marcin and Artur, and step-grandmother of Maya Aleksander and Bartłomiej Jendryka.
