

Roberta Ann Mully

July 12, 1944 - May 7, 2024

Roberta Ann Mully, 79, a longtime resident of Garfield, passed away peacefully on Tuesday, May 7, 2024. Roberta was born in Passaic, raised in Garfield, and settled in River Vale in 2015. Roberta was an active parishioner of St. Stanislaus Kostka R.C. Church in Garfield and worked at the Heaney Center in Hackensack. Her passions in life included bowling, dancing, listening to music, and traveling the world with her cherished family. Roberta was the beloved daughter of the late Emil and Lottie Mully (nee Rostkowski), dear sister of Dr. John Mully and Dr. Frank Plateroti, loving godmother of Nicholas Mully, aunt of Katie Troncillito and her husband, Anthony, and great aunt of Sofia Troncillito.

Roberta's family is very grateful to Spectrum for Living for her care and well-being following her mother's passing. Kindly consider making donations in Roberta's name. (<https://spectrumforliving.org/donate>)

There will be a Memorial Mass for Roberta on or around the July 12th (Roberta's birthday) followed by entombment at St. Mary's.
