

Romuald Michalek

April 28, 1932 - August 20, 2020

Longtime Paramus, NJ resident Romuald Michalek, 88, passed away on August 20, 2020. Romuald was born on April 28, 1932, in Myslowice, Poland to Emmanuel and Anna Michalek. As well as being an academic (having received a Bachelor of Science in Chemical Engineering from the Politechnic Institute, Silesia), Romuald was also a force to be contended with on the soccer field ♦ he was a celebrated member of the Polish National Soccer Team, Ruch Chorzow, from 1953-1957.

Romuald had dreams of greatness and knew the United States was the place where they could be actualized. He came in 1961, where he married Maria Baruszynski. He also furthered his studies and received a Masters in Chemical Engineering from New York University as well as a Masters in Business Administration from Farleigh Dickinson University. His career in both the industrial and non-profit sectors spanned the course of many decades ♦ he was Business Development Manager at renowned chemical corporation Engelhard in Iselin, NJ and Executive Vice President at the World Environment Center in Manhattan.

In addition to his passion for the sport of soccer (which he religiously watched even through his later years), Romuald also loved to travel extensively. Whether on business trips or adventures with family, he loved learning about different cultures and meeting new people. Romuald was known for his sparkling personality, quick wit and love of telling jokes.

He is survived by his wife of 56 years, Maria, his daughter, Eva Baran, son-in-law, Dariusz Baran, and beloved granddaughter, Isabella. A private family service will be held for Romuald and he will be interred at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestohowa in Doylestown, PA. The Michalek/Baran family will also hold an additional memorial service at a later date.
