“ I remember going up and visiting and we went to go see Grammy when I was first pregnant and she looked at me and Austin and she said “you’re going to have a girl” I looked at my mom and said “how does she know that”. All the funny moments of telling my friends and Austin’s family about Grammy and how she always spoke her mind and wasn’t afraid to tell anybody off, writing down messages on paper for her to know what I was saying because she refused to put her hearing aids in, and her thinking that my mom was pregnant instead of me lol I’m going to miss you Grammy so much I love you
