“ To Maryann, Joe, Mary, Daniel and family, Our deepest sympathies and love to all. So sorry we cannot be there with you.
Sophie was always a fun to visit with when she was in Rutland. She lived life well.
You are in our prayers.

“ I will miss the lottery tickets my Aunt Sophie would always send on my birthday. She never forgot even one year, although I never won. She was such a good sport when I would call and thank her. We would laugh and say maybe next year. I will always remember my younger years at Aunt Sophie's house during my summer vacations. I will miss you but I know you are in a better place.
