

Victor Bakaj

July 31, 1925 - June 17, 2014

Victor Bakaj, 88, lifetime resident of Garfield, died at Hackensack University Medical Center on Tuesday, June 17, 2014. Victor was a decorated veteran of the United States Army, serving in WW II. He was a rifleman in Co F 313th Infantry Regiment, 79th Infantry Division, and was awarded a BronzeStar, Good Conduct Medal, an EAME campaign medal and a Sharpshooter badge. Prior to his retirement, Victor worked as a machinist for the Bendix Corp. in Teterboro. He was a parishioner of St. Stanislaus Kostka R.C. Church in Garfield. In his younger days he enjoyed bowling, and in his later years, he enjoyed going to the races where he befriended several of the famous local jockeys. Victor was the beloved son of the late George and Mary (nee Kusy) Bajak, dear brother of Wanda Kopec of Garfield, and the late John, Stanley, and Michael Bakay, and Jean Gregory, and brother-in-law of Genivieve Bakay in Pennsylvania. Victor is also survived by several loving nieces and nephews. Those wishing to make a donation in his memory may do so to your local Veterans of Foreign War or American Legion posts.
