

Vincent Colacci

March 19, 1930 - December 14, 2018

Vincent "Pop" Colacci, 88, of Wallington, passed away on Friday, December 14, 2018. Vincent was born in Guttenberg and lived in North Bergen for 66 years settling in Wallington in 1999. Vincent worked as a Pressman for Union Hill Printing in Ridgefield Park for 40 years then AA Electric in Pompton Plains for the past 25 years. He attended Mass regularly at Our Lady of Mount Virgin R.C. Church in Garfield and was a proud member of the United States Marine Corps. His entire life revolved around his family and he spent his years attending every sporting event for his beloved grandchildren. He supported his family in all they did. He also lived for feeding his family his delicious pasta sauce and meatballs. He was the beloved husband, of 47 years, of the late Josephine Colacci, devoted father of Kirk Colacci and his wife, Alicia, of Wallington, and Arlene Rybak and her husband, Warren, of Upper Saddle River, loving grandfather of Jennifer Rybak-Fritz, Steven Rybak and his wife, Kelly, and Michael and James Colacci, caring great-grandfather of Mia, Addy, Bella and Grace, and dear brother of his late 9 brothers and sisters.

“ what an honor to serve you in your last hours. I truly wish I got to know you better. Apparently you used to hang out with my brother as "one of the guys". I hope you're hanging out with him right now in Heaven....tell him his family misses him and loves him just as your family loves and misses you. God Bless you Vin!
