

Vito Racanelli

July 4, 1935 - April 8, 2023

Vito Racanelli, 87, a longtime resident of Wallington, passed away peacefully on Saturday, April 8, 2023. Vito was born in Sannicandro di Bari, Italy, and emigrated to the United States with his family when he was 6 months old. He lived in New York City until 1962, when he settled in Wallington. Vito was a railroad conductor for many years, then a foreman at a fabric warehouse in Passaic. He was an avid sports fan with a passion for baseball, even playing in local amateur leagues such as the Dixie Tigers. Vito was always very sociable and enjoyed walking around town and the park sparking up conversations with his neighbors. Vito was the beloved husband of the late Eleanor Racanelli (nee Wojtach), devoted father of the late Michele Racanelli, loving brother of the late John Racanelli and Theresa DiGeso and uncle to the late Marlene Lamontanaro. Surviving family nephew Gaetano DiGeso, niece Francine DiGeso and their families, cousins Rocky and Joanie Racanelli and their families.
