

Wanda K. Plonka

November 24, 1923 - November 7, 2016

Wanda Katarzyna (nee Puc) Plonka, 92, of Newtown, PA., passed away peacefully, Monday, November 7, 2016. Wanda was born in Przemys, Poland, where she lived before being deported with her family to a Stalinist Siberian Labor Camp at the start of World War II. In 1942 her family was transported to the Middle East where they served in the Polish Army in Exile under British control. Wanda met her late beloved husband Stanislaw Plonka, also a soldier in the Polish Army in Exile after the war in England, where they spent 5 years together before coming to the United States in 1955, settling in Wallington. Wanda was an assembly line packer for 12 years at Beecham, Inc., of Clifton before her retirement in 1984. Previously she was a seamstress for a dress manufacturing company in Passaic. She retired to Port Orange, Florida in 1986. She later moved to Burke, Virginia in 2000, and then to Newtown, Pennsylvania in 2014. Wanda was a devout parishioner of Most Sacred Heart of Jesus R.C. Church in Wallington, and a member of the Polish Veterans Association of Passaic. Wanda was the beloved wife of the late Stanislaw Plonka, devoted mother of Christine Muller, and her husband Jules, of Upper Holland, PA, and Joanne Galik, and her husband Daniel, of Burke, VA., loving grandmother of Rosemarie Muller Hamm, Steven Muller, Christopher Galik, John Paul Galik, and great-grandchildren Addison, Savannah, and Brooklyn Muller, dear sister of the late Zbigniew, Frank, Stanislaw "Stasiu" Puc, and Kazimiera Trela. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations to the American Cancer Society, 20 Mercer Street, Hackensack, NJ 07601 or the American Heart Association 2550 US Highway 1, North Brunswick, NJ 08902-4301, in memory of Wanda Plonka, would be appreciated. Visit kamienskifuneralhome.com
