December 11, 1949 - October 12, 2020

Zygmunt Adam Janiak, 70, of Garfield, passed away on Monday, October 12, 2020. Zygmunt was born in Wojcieszow, Poland and immigrated to the United States in 1988. He spent some time living in Brooklyn and Jersey City before settling down with his family in Garfield, NJ. Zygmunt spent a majority of his life as a truck driver and retired in 2016 from the Go2 Trucking Company. He was a parishioner of St. Stanislaus Kostka R.C. For the last few years, he took great joy in taking his boat out to Lake George, NY every summer where he would camp with his family and friends. Zygmunt was the beloved husband to Halina (Janus) Janiak and the devoted father of three daughters; Sylwia Janiak, Monika (Janiak) Erden, and Marta Janiak. He was also an amazing grandfather to Monika's and her husband's, Ahmet Erden, three children; Irem, Eren, and Aysu. Zygmunt is the eldest in his family, followed by his brother, Zbigniew Janiak, and his youngest sister, Barbara (Janiak) Pietryka.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations in Zygmunt's name to Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center (<https://giving.mskcc.org/>) would be kindly appreciated by his family.

“ Zygmus miałam szczęście , ze spotkałam Cię na swej drodze. Zawsze będę wspominała jak pływaliscie z Halinka w namiocie na Lake George i jak śmialiście się z tego... było tyle fantastycznych chwil... teraz tam, po drugiej strony tęczy pewnie już opowiadasz dowcipy i masz świetny czas. Nie mówię - żegnaj , mówię - do zobaczenia kiedyś
